

BYRONE PUTMAN MEMORIAL TROPHY

The Byron E. Putman Memorial Trophy is a sterling silver loving cup 5¼ inches high and 5 inches in diameter mounted on a wooden base. It was donated to NRA for junior rifle competition in 1974 by the Wheaton Illinois Rifle Club in memory of Byron E. Putman. He was an NRA Director from 1954 to 1960 who devoted much of his time training junior shooters.

Match Conditions:

- 1974 High Junior, Smallbore Free Rifle 3 Position, 40 shots each position, prone, standing and kneeling, three day aggregate.
- 1982 Junior Smallbore Free Rifle 3 Position Champion.
- 1997 Re-designated and awarded to the Intermediate Junior 3-Position Champion at the Outdoor National Championships.
- 2008 Target changed to the NRA A-23/5 target.
